COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, for its Complaint against the Defendants, respectfully alleges as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff, EnviroCare Technologies, LLC (hereinafter “Envirocare”) is a limited liability company organized under the laws of New York, having a principle place of business at 1626 Locust Avenue Bohemia, Suite 8, New York.

2. Plaintiff, upon information and belief, alleges that Defendant, Crucial Vacuum, LLC is a limited liability company of the State of New York and has a principal place of business at 415 Hamburg TPKE, Wayne, NJ 07470.

3. Plaintiff, upon information and belief, alleges that Defendant, Crucial Brands Inc., is a corporation of the State of New York, that changed its name from Crucial Vacuum, Inc. to Crucial Brands, Inc. On December 16, 2013, and has a principal place of business at 415 Hamburg TPKE, Wayne, NJ 07470. Crucial Vacuum, LLC and Crucial Brands, Inc. shall hereinafter be referred to collectively as “Crucial.”

5. Plaintiff, upon information and belief, alleges that Defendant Chad Rubin, is an individual and a principle of both Crucial Vacuum, LLC and Crucial Brands, Inc. Upon information and belief Chad Rubin maintains an office or residence at 651 Main Street Unit 2, Sparkill, NY, 10976.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. The First and Second claims herein arise under the Federal Trademark Act of 1946, 15 U.S.C. §1051, et seq. and accordingly, subject matter jurisdiction for these claims is conferred upon this Court by virtue of 15 U.S.C. §1121 and 28 U.S.C. §1338(a).

7. The remaining claims herein arise under the laws of the State of New York and are joined with related claims under the Federal Trademark Act. Accordingly, subject matter jurisdiction for the remaining claims is conferred upon this Court by 28 U.S.C. §1338(b) and 28 U.S.C. §1367.

8. Defendants Crucial and Chad Rubin (collectively hereinafter “the Defendants”) engage in the marketing and solicitation of accessories for vacuum cleaners within this judicial district and in doing so, have caused harm to Envirocare, a resident corporation of this judicial district.

9. The Defendants entered into a contract and settlement agreement with Envirocare in order to resolve a prior dispute which was before this court, the subject of Envirocare Technologies, LLC v. Crucial Vacuum, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 2:10-cv-05542(JFB)(ETB) (hereinafter “The Prior Action”). The contract was negotiated and executed in the Southern and Eastern District of New York, and in breaching said contract, Defendants have caused harm to Envirocare, a resident corporation of this judicial district.

10. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1391(b) and (c).

NATURE OF THE CASE

11. This is an action seeking injunctive relief and damages for federal and common law trademark infringement, unfair competition, and breach of an existing settlement agreement.

12. This action arises from the Defendants' intentional scheme to compete unfairly by selling accessories for vacuum cleaners that compete with Envirocare and have been advertised and sold under the Envirocare name. Such products of the Defendants are referred to collectively as the "Infringing Products."

13. Upon information and belief, Chad Rubin, owns or operates one or more of the other Defendant entities and Mr. Rubin is a principal of both Crucial Vacuum, LLC and Crucial Brands, Inc. On information and belief, Mr. Rubin operates and controls all aspects of Crucial and personally was involved in and is responsible for the selection, adoption, and use of the products and listings alleged in this complaint to constitute trademark infringement, unfair competition and breach of contract. Upon information and belief, Mr. Rubin was and is an active and direct participant in, and the driving force behind and has induced, the unlawful activity alleged by Envirocare in this Complaint.

COUNT I: FEDERAL TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT
UNDER 15 U.S.C. §1114

14. Plaintiff, Envirocare, markets within this judicial district and throughout the United States replacement accessories, such as filters and bags, for vacuum cleaners.

15. The products of Envirocare are replacement vacuum accessories marketed and sold under the Envirocare name since 2001, which prominently identify Envirocare as the source of these goods.

16. ENVIROCARE, United States Trademark registration No. 3,914,048, is a registered trademark, owned by Envirocare for replacement vacuum accessories, such as filters and bags. (See Exhibit A)

17. Since 2001, and prior to the acts of the Defendants complained of herein, Envirocare has established rights in the United States and elsewhere, including this judicial district, to the Envirocare trademark as applied to vacuum accessories.

18. By virtue of the extensive use by the plaintiff of the Envirocare trademark, throughout the United States, the Envirocare trademark has come to symbolize the reputation and good will of the plaintiff, Envirocare.

19. Envirocare markets a line of high-quality replacement vacuum bags in the United States, each line has distinctive design elements. One such line, for example, is marketed as replacement vacuum bags for Hoover Type Y vacuum bags, and is shown in the attached Exhibit B.

20. Envirocare has been marketing from this judicial district the replacement vacuum bags, such as the replacement vacuum bags for Hoover Type Y vacuum bags as illustrated in the attached Exhibit B, long before the activities of the Defendants noted herein.

21. Subsequent to the adoption, registration and use of the Envirocare trademark, for vacuum accessories by Envirocare, the Defendants have been advertising and offering for sale on the internet non-Envirocare products, in at least one internet marketplace, Amazon.com, vacuum accessories listed and advertised under the name Envirocare (hereinafter “the Infringing Products”). See for example the offering by Crucial Vacuum on a Envirocare-branded Hoover Y Amazon.com product listing shown in Exhibit C.

22. Envirocare has given notice to the Defendants herein that the use of the name Envirocare by defendants violates the rights of the plaintiff in its trademark; and despite such notification, the defendants have continued to list non-Envirocare vacuum accessories using the name Envirocare.

23. Envirocare believes and therefore avers that the Defendants were well aware of the trademark of Envirocare prior to the marketing in the United States of products of Defendants, and that the Defendants willfully intend that the marketing within this judicial district and elsewhere of The Infringing Products under the Envirocare name is intended to create confusion to purchasers buying with ordinary care, to deceive, and to trade-off of and/or harm the business and reputation of Envirocare within this judicial district deliberately.

24. Envirocare further believes and therefore avers that the Defendants are fully aware that their aforesaid acts tend to falsely identify and falsely associate the source of the merchandise of the Defendants with Envirocare. Such actions on the part of the Defendants are intended to cause and are likely to cause mistake and actual confusion in the minds of purchasers and to deceive, all to the great and irreparable damage and injury of Envirocare.

25. Such unfair competition and trademark infringement as noted above have and will continue to cause confusion, and is, on information and belief, done willfully by the Defendants.

26. Plaintiff is informed and believes and therefore avers that the Defendants herein have deliberately and knowingly continued to appropriate the reputation and good will that Envirocare has developed for replacement vacuum accessories.

27. The aforesaid activities of the Defendants have and will continue to create confusion to consumers and the relevant trade buying with ordinary care, and Envirocare further avers that the Defendants are fully aware that the marketing of The Infringing Products with the Envirocare name will falsely identify and falsely misrepresent the source of its goods as originating with or sponsored, or approved by the Envirocare. Such actions on the part of the Defendants are believed to be intended to cause and likely to cause mistake and confusion in the minds of the purchasing public.

28. Unless properly enjoined by this Court, the confusion and deception noted immediately above, and the likelihood therefor, will continue with irreparable harm and damage to Envirocare.

COUNT II: FEDERAL COMMON LAW UNFAIR COMPETITION
UNDER 15 U.S.C. §1125

29. As a complete and second ground of relief, Plaintiff hereby charges the Defendant with Federal common law unfair competition under 15 U.S.C. §1125, and hereby realleges paragraphs 1-28.

30. The Defendants' unauthorized and unlawful misappropriation of the Envirocare trademark has enabled the Defendants to unlawfully trade upon the established good will and reputation of Envirocare as a provider of high-quality replacement vacuum accessories. The Defendants are thus unjustly enriching themselves at the expense and to the damage and injury of Envirocare, and unless enjoined by this Court, will further impair the value of Envirocare's trademark, its reputation and good will.

COUNT III: COMMON LAW UNFAIR COMPETITION
UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

31. As a complete and third grounds for relief, Plaintiff hereby charges the Defendants with common law unfair competition under the laws of the State of New York, and hereby realleges paragraphs 1-30.

32. Envirocare has expended effort and money to design and produce high-quality replacement vacuum accessories under the name Envirocare with a distinctive and stylized appearance to identify to both the trade and relevant purchasing public a high-quality product marketed by Envirocare, and in establishing in connection therewith, a reputation for quality.

33. As a result of the marketing by the Defendants of comparable products using the Envirocare name, the reputation of Envirocare has been misappropriated.

34. By appropriating the trademark of Envirocare the Defendants are able to "pass off" its Infringing Products as the genuine products of Envirocare. The Defendants are thus deliberately and knowingly misrepresenting and diverting Plaintiff's goodwill, and the reputation symbolized thereby, and therefore unfairly competing with Envirocare.

35. Upon information and belief, the unfair competition of the Defendants have caused, and if allowed to continue, will continue to cause sales of the products of Envirocare to be lost and/or diverted improperly to the Defendants.

36. The unfair competition of the Defendants have caused substantial and irreparable damage and injury to Envirocare, and in particular to its valuable goodwill and reputation, and unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to cause substantial and irreparable damage and injury to Envirocare.

COUNT IV: UNFAIR COMPETITION UNDER THE STATUTES OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

37. As a complete and fourth grounds for relief, Plaintiff hereby charges the Defendants with unfair competition and consumer deception under the laws of the State of New York, and hereby realleges paragraphs 1 through 36.

38. The aforementioned activities of Defendants violates §§ 349 and 350 of the New York General Business Law.

COUNT V: BREACH OF CONTRACT AND SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

39. As a complete and fifth grounds for relief, Plaintiff hereby charges the Defendants with breach of contract, and hereby realleges paragraphs 1 through 38.

40. On January 28, 2011 Defendants Chad Rubin and Crucial Brands, Inc. (formerly Crucial Vacuum, Inc.) executed a contract and settlement agreement with Envirocare in order to resolve The Prior Action (hereinafter “The Settlement Agreement”).

40. Paragraph 2 of The Settlement Agreement provides that Defendants Chad Rubin and Crucial Brands, Inc. (formerly Crucial Vacuum, Inc.) “immediately cease listing and sale of non-Envirocare products under the Envirocare name.”

41. The actions of Defendants Chad Rubin and Crucial Brands, Inc. described herein above violate the terms of The Settlement Agreement, specifically, but not limited to paragraph 2 noted above, and constitute a substantial breach of The Settlement Agreement, and have caused harm to Envirocare.

42. Plaintiff is informed and believes and therefore avers that the Defendants herein have deliberately and knowingly breached The Settlement Agreement.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for the following relief:

A. that the Defendants their agents, servants, employees and attorneys as well as those persons in active concert or participation therewith be temporarily, preliminarily and permanently enjoined and restrained from manufacturing, having manufactured, importing, offering for sale, selling, advertising or promoting or distributing in the United States any products using the name Envirocare on the product or listing;

D. that an accounting and judgment be rendered against the Defendants for:

(i) all profits received by the defendant from the sale of any products using the name Envirocare on the product or listing.

(ii) all damages sustained by Envirocare as a result of the sale of any products using the name Envirocare on the product or listing;

(iii) that the Defendants account for and compensate Envirocare fully for all sales of products of Envirocare that have been diverted or reduced as a result of the unfair competition of the defendant as authorized by 15 U.S.C. § 1117 and §§ 349, 350 and 360-m of the New York General Business Law;

(iv) that the Defendants account for all profits received from the sale of products competing unfairly with Envirocare as authorized by 15 U.S.C. § 1117 and §§ 349, 350 and 360-m of the New York General Business Law;

(v) that the damages to Envirocare resulting from the unfair competition by Defendants be trebled in view of the willful and wanton actions thereof and its knowing breach of contract; and

D. that Envirocare have and receive its costs in this action, including an award of its reasonable attorney's fees with interest from the date of the filing of this complaint pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1117 and General Business Law §§ 349, 350 and 360-m;

E. that Envirocare receive interest on its damages awards from the date of injury;

F. that punitive damages be awarded as a result of the wanton misappropriation of the Envirocare name, pursuant to New York General Business Law §§ 349, 350 and 360-m; and

G. Envirocare be granted such other and further relief as the court deems just and appropriate.

Caution: E-mail vendor FIRST before buying

By K. West phal on May 24, 2010

Size: 9 Bags Verified Purchase

I just received these bags, but the brand was NOT Envirocare as advertised -- it was Crucial Vacuum, a cheap Chinese knock-off (of a generic!). I've been having this problem with vacuum parts through Amazon where vendors ship out much cheaper, inferior parts than what's pictured and hope that most people don't complain. Amazon is not doing an adequate job of keeping tabs on these vendors, and they are making a mint off of these cheap, inferior bags.

I e-mailed the vendor to complain and they are sending out the correct brand, but really, why should I have to do that? If this happens to you, please complain to Amazon as well -- it's their responsibility to screen out vendors, especially when they rotate vendors through as the primary supplier (so feedback left for one may be attributed to another).

Definitely NOT the ones to buy anymore.. Any of these older paper type "Y" bags (whatever they call them. In this case "micro-filtration") are famous for coming apart at the glued seams.. Hoover superseded them with their new complete plastic bags that are manufactured with "heat-sealed" seams, that never come apart.. The better ones are called Hoover part number 4010801Y.. They also have many other benefits over these older paper bags, invented in the 1950's. Namely the newer 4010801Y type "Y" bag also filters out smaller particles, fits into the vacuum easier and better, and contains more dirt. Don't be fooled into buying paper bags using catch names other than the word paper: Like "micro-filtration".. The newer plastic 4010801Y (also called part# 43655082) are HEPA rated to trap 99.97% of dust and pollens down to 0.3 microns.. The old ones don't come anywhere near that.. They fit all type "Y".. Once you use them, you will never switch back!

These vacuum bags are just as good if not better than the "name brand" bags you buy at your local store. I hate going from store to store looking for the correct vacuum bag. Save yourself some time and money and stock up. The money you save on these bags will pay for the shipping.

False labeling claim on compatibility with the Hoover Wind Tunnel bagged vacuum--look at the difference!

By UMrebel on April 14, 2015

Size: 9 Bags Verified Purchase

Though advertised as a compatible replacement bag for the Hoover Wind Tunnel Upright Type Y Micro Filtration bag, it does NOT FIT as the bag opening lacks the flexible opening that the GENUINE Hoover HEPA bag that costs considerably more and is sold in bags of 2. Beware of the EnviroCare Technologies that tries to pass its product off at a much lower cost. It will not fit!

Outstanding Vacuum Bag

By R. Crane VINE VOICE on February 7, 2009

Size: 9 Bags Verified Purchase

There is little information easily available to figure out which vacuum uses which bag. The Hoover Tempo Widepath U5140-900 bagged upright vacuum came with this bag, and fortunately, it is the same bag that my old Hoover Wind Tunnel also used. Never had any problem with them over a period of eight years. They are sturdy and reliable, not bursting suddenly and flooding the room with dirt, when used properly. Highly recommended.

Look, to tone down those who say that the bag is not HEPA, 'reality check' nowhere on the bag does it say HEPA. I have used these bags and for the price they are great. As one reviewer states "It's good to have inexpensive cloth instead of the paper" AMEN. I just finished using my almost new Hoover Tempo Widepath U5140-900 (on sale $59 excellent value)to clean the fine remaining ash in my fireplace, my previous bag would have allowed the fine particles to escape... this bag did not - Kudos! For the money, Highly Recommended.

Type Y Vacuum Bags Microfiltration with Closure - 9 Pack

By Amazon' Rally on July 18, 2007

Size: 9 Bags Verified Purchase

Basic item replacement that has nothing outstanding about it. Careful when ordering and price comparing because the company I ordered from did not give a discount for multiple packs, i.e. S&H was added for each pack. Thought I'd stockpile to save a few bucks but all I did was use my storage space.
